

2023 Clean Cities Stakeholder Summit

Wednesday, September 6, 2023

Hilton McLean Tysons Corner, 7920 Jones Branch Dr., McLean, VA

Wednesday, September 6, 2023 – Stakeholder Summit

All plenary sessions held in International Ballroom

8:00 a.m.	Meeting Welcome and Opening Remarks Senior Advisor for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy, Office of the Secretary discusses DOE’s sustainable transportation efforts and how Clean Cities helps accomplish them.	Mark Smith, DOE John Davis, Maryland Public Television Michael Berube, DOE Jeff Marootian, Senior Advisor for Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy, Office of the Secretary, DOE
8:40 a.m.	30 Years of Clean Cities Success: How Did We Get Here? Take a journey through 30 years of Clean Cities transforming the transportation sector through collaboration, technical expertise, and passion.	Marcy Rood, Argonne Mike Scarpino, Volpe Wendy Dafoe, NREL Dennis Smith, Former DOE Clean Cities Director Linda Bluestein, Former DOE Clean Cities Director Jonathan Overly, East Tennessee Clean Fuels Jeff Hardy, Former DOE Clean Cities Director Moderated by Mark Smith, DOE
9:50 a.m.	NREL Clean Cities Video	John Davis , Maryland Public Television
10:00 a.m.	MORNING BREAK
10:20 a.m.	MotorWeek 30th Anniversary Video	John Davis , Maryland Public Television
10:25 am	Clean Cities and the Future of Transportation Look ahead to role Clean Cities will play in the next 30 years of the transportation sector.	Austin Brown, DOE Alycia Gilde, DOE Ann Vail, Louisiana Clean Fuels Lorrie Lisek, Wisconsin Clean Cities Stacy Noblet, ICF Karl Simon, EPA Philip Saunders, People of Color in Green Spaces Moderated by Sam Spofforth, DOE
11:40 am	Recognizing Clean Cities Stakeholders Awards ceremony to celebrate the contributions of Clean Cities stakeholders.	Mark Smith, DOE Michael Laughlin, DOE Neil Kirschner, NETL

12:10 p.m.	LUNCH Lunch buffet
1:10 p.m.	Poster and Networking Session Located in the Atrium. Tour a collection of posters from Clean Cities coalitions across the nation and network with Summit attendees.
2:00 p.m.	Incorporating Energy and Environmental Justice in Clean Cities Clean Cities coalitions have been collaborating with stakeholders to integrate energy and environmental justice priorities in coalition activities. Panelists will discuss how coalitions are engaging with underserved communities to ensure federal investments benefit communities that historically have not had a seat at the table.	Antoine Thompson , Greater Washington Region Clean Cities Coalition Peggy O’Neill-Vivanco , Vermont Clean Cities Jannet Malig , Long Beach Clean Cities Robert Blake , Native Sun Community Power Development Moderated by Margaret Smith , DOE
3:00 p.m.	AFTERNOON BREAK
3:20 p.m.	The Power of Clean Cities Partnerships Clean Cities has thrived through the power of collaborative technology innovation. Panelists will discuss how coalition directors and stakeholders have leveraged partnerships in pursuit of the Clean Cities mission.	Alleyn Harned , Virginia Clean Cities Bonnie Trowbridge , Drive Clean Colorado Michael Graham , Western Washington Clean Cities Moderated by Barry Carr , Clean Communities Central New York Ted Barnes , GTI Natasha Fackler , Penn DOT Casey Foster , Alabama Clean Fuels Moderated by Jill Hamilton , Sustainable Energy Solutions, Inc.
4:40 p.m.	Clean Cities Hall of Fame The Clean Cities Hall of Fame recognizes outstanding contributions to advancing affordable, efficient, and clean transportation fuels and technologies. DOE will announce the 2023 Clean Cities Hall of Fame inductee.	Clean Cities Regional Managers from the National Energy Technology Laboratory
4:50 p.m.	Closing Remarks
		Mark Smith , DOE Margaret Smith , DOE